

Roots of Empathy, St. Matthews School, Alliance for Children and Youth, Little People's Workshop and other community partners

WELCOMES!

Jim Mustard, Council for Early Child Development

Free Lecture
Thursday, January 22, 2008

It Really Does Take A Community ... to support the early years of life and set the neurological and biological pathways that affect lifelong health, learning and behaviour. (ECD Website)

St. Matthew's School Cafeteria
119 Cowan Heights
8:30 a.m. Sign In/ Meet and Greet
9:00 a.m. Lecture/ Sharing and Discussion
Break/ mid-morning
Summary: 12 - 12:30 p.m.

For more information or to register:
E-mail: Kyran Dwyer, Principal. \(kyrandwyer @ esdnl.ca\)

The Council For Early Child Development was founded to help create a universal, accessible vision of early child development. The Council envisions a system consisting of community based centres operating at the local level within a provincial framework.

In his role with the Council for Early Development, Province of Nova Scotia and Coordinator, Roots of Empathy, Mr. Mustard is in a position to inform our networking and collective goals as we seek the best outcomes for children in our province.
(See: www.councilecd.ca/cecd)